

HCTV Program Schedule: August 14 – 20, 2017

Watch the HCTV channels streamed online at watch.hudsoncommunity.tv.

Highlights of Pack the Pond at Hudson Springs Park were captured from land and water, for you to see!

Thomas L. Vince hosts a program about Louis Bromfield, Pulitzer Prize-winning author and conservationist, and his historic Ohio home, Malabar Farm to explain a Hudson connection with the story of two boys who lived their formative years at Malabar and then attended WRA, along with an interview with Ellen Bromfield Geld and a walk-through tour of the historic Malabar Farm "Big House." The program was created by public access producers Allyn Marzulla and Nick Zaklanovich.

This week's KBTime, Kabir presents a look at the Elvis Presley discography, 40 years after the death of The King. He'll show many of Presley's RCA-Victor albums and talk about the way to find the best of Elvis on vinyl. There's also a look at his final two concerts, which took place in Cincinnati and Indianapolis. Kabir also makes a quick visit to the new Cedar Point location of Melt Bar & Grilled.

Hudson Rotary Club welcomes David Zelasko, consultant with Third Sun Solar, a solar installation company located in Athens, Ohio, talking about "Solar Energy in Ohio."

Forum 360 features "Can You Hear Me Now?" about hearing loss, what can be done about it and how dramatically this has changed in the last decades. Hosted by Leslie Ungar

HCTV's newest monthly production, HudScenes, takes a look back at highlights of the month, showing clips of events and happenings in and around Hudson, and featuring beauty shots of our lovely city.

The Road to Recovery presents "Criminal Justice Reform" with implications for services to address mental and substance use disorders.

The City Club of Cleveland presents "The State of America's Cities" with Matt Zone, President of the National League of Cities, and Councilman, Ward 15 of the City of Cleveland. A second program welcomes Corey Lewandowski, former campaign manager for President Donald Trump.

The Ultimate Game Challenge presents the tough strategic competition of the game Battleship.

From the HCTV Archives: Parade of Bands 2016, Hudson Library and Historical Society presents "Rustbelts to Brainbelts", Music from the Buckeye State presents "Stories of Operatic Proportions", Hudson Community First presents "Stories of Resiliency in Our Community" and the Hudson Environmental Awareness Committee presents The First Hudson Solar Power Symposium.
