

HCTV Program Schedule: November 20 - 26, 2017

As part of Spectrum's move to all digital, the Hudson Community TV community programming channel has been moved to 1021. Government programming is 1022. Community information is 1023. To view the HCTV channels and archives online: watch.hudsoncommunity.tv

With the 54th anniversary of the Kennedy assassination, WRA archivist and historian Thomas L. Vince presented some different perspectives of the tragedy for the Hudson Woman's Club with background tales of the impact on Lee Harvey Oswald's family, the life-changing involvement of Ruth Hyde Paine, who had housed the Oswald family just before the assassination, and FBI Agent James Hosty, who had been assigned to investigate Oswald prior to the assassination and paid a heavy price after the crime occurred.

Saywell's History, presented by Hudson Questers, features John and Rick Hanna describing the history of the longtime pharmacy, soda fountain and drugstore in downtown Hudson. HCTV also presents the Hudson Profile of Dante Lavelli and Visit with Minnie and Rich Merino, from the archives.

HCTV presents a day of HHS Band performances, from this year and the archives, on Thanksgiving Day. On Friday, HCTV shows five winning HHS Football games of the 2017 season.

The Career Panel/Intern for a Day program by Hudson Community First is shown this week. Presenters were Janet Duliga, JoAnn ETC.; Tom Corpus, Progressive Insurance; Keith Unke, The Timken Company; Thomas Sheridan, City of Hudson; and Jen Gibson, DETAIL Design Studio, LLC.

The City Club of Cleveland presents two programs: Ian Bickford, Ph.D. of Bard College, "Why Wait? Early College: National and Local" and Nan Whaley, Democratic Candidate for Governor of Ohio.

Forum 360: Rob Gaydosh discusses the current training required for Concealed Carry Weapons.

The November edition of Good Day in Hudson is a special salute to veterans with a visit from the Military Outreach Group of Christ Community Chapel to discuss their support of veterans. Tom Vince presents a Moment in Hudson History about two of Hudson's WWI veterans, Webb and Clell Greenlese.

Hudson Rotary Club presents Stephen Harrison of the Cleveland Museum of Art. Ruth Lee talks to Molly Logan about her book, "One Penny On Top of Another."

This week, on a special one-hour Thanksgiving KBTime, Kabir flees his British neighbors to host a cooking demonstration with Neelam Bhatia, owner of Spicy by Nature, a new business teaching Indian cooking in Northeast Ohio.
