On a new KBTime, Kabir welcomes Joan Sauer, a counselor at Evamere Elementary, retiring 30-years in Hudson, discussing work as well as her program to provide students with proper nutrition, in and out of school. Kabir includes a visit with Kent State University's commencement speaker, actor Michael Keaton.

The East Woods Bloodhound Rocket Car Races event at Hudson Memorial Stadium were hosted and produced by HHS students - - and it was aired LIVE on HCTV and Facebook.

The new edition of The Herman Show features host HCSD Superintendent Phil Herman talking with fifth grader Bella Campi and junior Amy Grecol who portrayed sisters in a short film directed by a HHS alumna, Kelsie Adams, entitled "One Foot in Front." This show is produced by the HHS Digital Video class.

The HHS vs North Canton-Hoover Girls Lacrosse match will be shown this week.

Author Robert Kurson talked about his new book "Rocket Men: The Daring Odyssey of Apollo 8 and the Astronauts Who Made Man's First Journey to the Moon" at the Hudson Library & Historical with details of the space flight that history recalls as perhaps the greatest single adventure in human history.

Shel Schweikert, City Manager for the Village of Hudson for 29 years 1966-1994, discusses his years of service to the community with former Hudson Mayor Bill Currin.

The May edition of Good Day in Hudson features Candace Sveda and Kate Schlademan discussing the anniversaries of their businesses. Tom Vince provides a history of the Waite family and Liz Murphy delivers Happening in Hudson.

Hudson Rotary Club features Major Jackson, Salvation Army, presenting Breaking the Cycle of Poverty.

The HHS Music Department's Spring Choral, Orchestra, Band, and Jazz concerts will be shown.

The City Club of Cleveland presents two programs: Dr. Helen Janc Malone talks about After the Bell: The Power of After School and Summer Programs, and transportation issues facing downtown Cleveland.

Forum 360 presents Ohio and Erie Canalway Coalition the almost completed Towpath Trail from Lake Erie to southern Tuscarawas County.

The archive of HCTV's coverage of the past Memorial Day Parades will be shown Saturday and Sunday.
