

HCTV Program Schedule: March 15 - 21, 2010

This week on Hudson Cable Television, award-winning author and illustrator David Macaulay presents the development of his latest book "How We Work: Getting to Know the Amazing Human Body". Macaulay gave this keynote address at the Kent State Library's opening of the Marantz collection of children's picture books.

The City Club of Cleveland presents "Ohio 2010" discussion between Chris Redfern, Chairman of the Ohio Democratic Party, and Kevin DeWine, Chairman of the Ohio Republican Party.

Good Day in Hudson's host Frank Youngwerth revisits a show from 2004 welcoming Leah and Matt Rafferty, Kirk and Dot Reid, Michelle Kisthardt and the Just Friends vocal group.

Hudson Rotary Club features Chuck Wiedie, Economic Development Director of the City of Hudson.

On the weekend, the Western Reserve Academy Music Department presents Winter Concert 2010 featuring the Western Reserve Symphonic Winds, The Academy Orchestra, the Percussion Ensemble and the Reserve Jazz Project, taped March 5.

A new edition of Sharing Miracles features football coach Bobby Bowden of Florida State University discussing his diabetes.

Ohio Department of Aging's "Finer with Age" discusses the U.S. Census and visits some great springtime Ohio destinations.

The Local Girls concert of 2003 at the Hudson Summer Music Festival is shown this week.

From the HCTV archives, Hudson Heritage Association presents Debbie and Bill Currin's "Life in Hudson as a Young Married Couple in the 1970's".
